STAT

I have received your letter of May 18th regarding [redacted] who is recommended for employment [redacted]

STAT

[redacted] appears to have qualifications that might be of use to us, therefore, application blanks have been sent to him at Winterhaven, Florida.

You will be interested to know that [redacted] completed and returned his application for employment, but requested that action thereon be held in abeyance since he was presently an applicant for another position.

STAT

Should your plans be changed whereby you do stop in Washington on your way South, I hope you will let me know.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

5
